

Our next production will be Allo Allo

This funny play based on the popular TV series will celebrate 80 years of the players, whose first production was performed in 1927

This will be a charity production with all profits being shared between Hayward House and Children in Distress.

The players thank all friends who have loaned props and helped with this production.

Also special thanks to the Paper Shop for acting as box office for Dick Whittington
