

The Charities supported by this production.

Cancer Research UK are the world's leading charity dedicated to beating cancer. Their research has been at the heart of the progress that has seen survival rates for cancer double in the last 30 years. Cancer Research is funded entirely by the public.

Neurocare raises money for the Neurosciences Department at the Royal Hallamshire Hospital. They buy very high tech equipment; equipment which would not otherwise be provided by the NHS. As a result of Neurocare's contributions, over many years, some of the best and most advanced equipment in the UK has been purchased for use in the Hospital.

Burton Joyce Stroke Club provides a meeting place for people who have had a stroke. Group meetings offer stroke survivors a chance to share experiences with others who understand what they are going through and take part in activities that can help with their ongoing recovery.
