

The Burton Joyce Players

The Burton Joyce Players stage three productions a year. We also have social evenings and arrange visits to other drama groups.

We always welcome new members, on and off stage. So if you would like more information on how to join or would like to come to one of our social evenings please contact our Secretary, Mary Brigham on 0115 9312399.

What's Next?

The Players are entering the Nottingham and Nottinghamshire Drama Association One Act Play Festival in June 2001 with a play entitled "What's for Pudding?"

Our AGM will be held on Friday 15th June in the Small Hall, and will be followed by cheese and wine.
